"A SPECIAL THANKS TO THE STOCKSHOW SPONSORS"

What is a Stockshow sponsor? A sponsor is someone who sees more than kids and animals at a Stockshow. A sponsor also sees hard work, responsibility, goal setting, management, determination, and success on display. A sponsor knows that a calf, lamb, or hog can teach lessons that can't be learned in any other way, and believes that those lessons are worth learning.

Since 1939, exhibitors in the Southeastern Utah Jr. Livestock Show have relied upon generous sponsors for support. We invite all Stockshow sponsors, past and present, to join us at the show. As you sit in the bleachers, take a look around. You'll notice that yesterday's exhibitors are today's parents, leaders, and sponsors. Thanks for believing in our youth. Your support is paying off.

The Stockshow Committee extends a special thanks to those businesses, families, and individuals who purchased animals and provided prizes and support in 2009.

SOUTHEASTERN UTAH JR. LIVESTOCK SHOW REGULATIONS

1. The Southeastern Utah Jr. Livestock Show and Sale is a non-profit institution devoted to educating people and improving livestock in Utah. Its primary concern is the development of young people and their interest toward better livestock.
2. Each exhibitor is responsible for loss or damage due to another or occasioned by or arising from an animal exhibited by him and shall indemnify the Southeastern Utah Jr. Livestock Show and Sale against all legal or other proceedings in regard thereto.
3. The Southeastern Utah Jr. Livestock Show and Sale Committee reserves the right to make all interpretations of any Stockshow rules and regulations.
4. All protests must be made in writing and presented to the show president within two (2) hours after the cause of the protest, along with $25.00 cash to be returned if the protest is upheld by the Stockshow Committee.
5. THE DECISION OF THE JUDGE IS FINAL.
6. Entry Information and Deadline: All market and breeding animals must be entered on official Utah Junior Livestock Show Entry Forms (Form 3) which are available from FFA Advisors and Extension Agents. Entry forms must be filled out completely, including required signatures, and must be accompanied by entry fees. Entry fees are $10.00 for the first animal entered and $5.00 for every animal thereafter. For example, if the exhibitor entered two market animals and one breeding animal, total entry fees would be $10.00 + $5.00 + $5.00=$20.00.
Entries must be postmarked no later than Monday, June 7, 2010. NO LATE ENTRIES WILL BE ACCEPTED.
Send Entries to: Dennis Worwood, Box 847 Castle Dale, UT 84513
7. Market animals that have been sold or bought back at a previous livestock show cannot be exhibited or sold at this Stockshow.
8. Each exhibitor may enter no more than a total of two market animals. The animals may be from one species or any combination of two species. Exhibitors may enter any number of breeding beef or breeding sheep.

RULES FOR 4-H AND FFA

1. FFA exhibitors must be Bona Fide FFA members by February 1 of the current year. FFA and 4-H exhibitors must meet state Junior Livestock Association age guidelines.
2. FFA and 4-H exhibitors must comply with state Stockshow dress requirements in showmanship contests, market animal classes, open breeding animal classes and the sale. Those violating dress standards will be excused from the class and/or sale.
3. Market animals must be exhibited by their owner in market classes, showmanship, and the sale. Exception: Exhibitors who have two animals called back for the championship class may ask another exhibitor to show one of the animals.
4. Commercial class exhibitors must be 4-H or FFA members.
5. A $10.00 fine will be withheld from the check of all exhibitors who fail to clean their pen or stall after their market animals are sold, or breeding animals exhibited. Pens should be kept tidy during the show. Exhibitors should clean up wool and hair clippings wherever animals are fitted.
6. FFA and 4-H exhibitors are encouraged to enter the showmanship contest. FFA and 4-H will compete together in showmanship according to age group. Showmanship classes are divided by the exhibitor=s school grade as of October 1 of the previous calendar year.
7. In all events, three or more entries per class constitute competition. Classes may be combined at the discretion of the judge and Stockshow committee.

GENERAL INFORMATION

1. Each of the market animal divisions will have a star class consisting of the top ten animals after the Grand and Reserve Champions (3rd through 12th place overall).
2. Premiums will be prorated and paid at the time of exhibit.
3. Exhibitors must furnish their own feed. Since it is increasingly difficult to obtain high quality bulk sawdust and shavings, BEDDING WILL NOT BE PROVIDED BY SHOW MANAGEMENT. Exhibitors must furnish their own bedding (must be bio-degradeable), or purchase baled shavings at the show. No straw will be allowed because of fire concerns.
4. Drug residue testing is mandatory for Grand and Reserve Champion animals. Other animals may be tested at random under the direction of the Stockshow Committee and veterinarian.

WEIGHING AND RECEIVING RULES

1. Market hogs must arrive at the show no later than 1:00 p.m. on Wednesday. Market lambs, steers, breeding sheep and breeding beef must arrive at the show no later than 2:00 p.m. on Wednesday. Market lambs and steers must be weighed in by 2:00 p.m. on Wednesday. There will be one official weigh-in with no weigh-backs. Market animals must remain on the grounds until released on Saturday. Breeding animal exhibitors are expected to leave the animals at the show. All animals must be released by the appropriate Department Head before leaving the show grounds.

2. Market animals that do not meet the minimum weight limit for their species will be sifted. Sifted animals should be taken from the show grounds if practical. Sifted animals may be used in the showmanship contest.

3. All ewe market lambs that arrive at the show without a premises tag (in compliance with the Utah Scrapie Eradication Program) will be sifted.

SALE REGULATIONS

1. Each exhibitor may sell one market animal through the junior livestock auction. Exhibitors who show two market animals must choose which animal will be sold through the auction (see rules 3 & 7, below) within two hours after the animals are shown. The other animal will be sold for floor price, sent to slaughter or taken home by the exhibitor. Exceptions: An exhibitor who shows two Grand Champion market animals, two Reserve Champion market animals or a Grand and a Reserve Champion market animal must sell both animals through the auction.

2. The Grand and Reserve Champion market steers and market hogs must be sold and slaughtered under the supervision of the Stockshow Committee. Grand and Reserve Champion market lambs must be sold for slaughter or for breeding purposes under the supervision of the Stockshow Committee.

3. All Star Class animals must be sold through the auction. The Star Class consists of the 3rd through 12th place overall market lambs, steers, barrows or gilts, as placed by the judge during the championship drive. The championship drive consists of those animals that are selected from each class by the judge to compete for Grand Champion.

By exhibiting animals in the championship drive, exhibitors are committing to sell those animals that place in the Star Class. Exhibitors who do not wish to sell Star Class animals must withdraw their market animals from the championship drive by notifying the appropriate department head before the animals enter the show ring for the championship drive.

Exceptions to the Star Class sale rule: If an exhibitor has a Grand or Reserve Champion and a Star Class animal, the Champion will be sold through the auction and the Star Class animal will be floored, sent to slaughter or taken home. If an exhibitor has two animals that place in the Star Class, they may choose which animal will be sold through the auction and which animal will be floored, sent to slaughter or taken home.

4. Exhibitors who do not sell their Champion or Star Class animals, as outlined by Sale Regulations 1 -3 above, will not be allowed to enter, exhibit or sell animals in the Southeastern Utah Jr. Livestock Show the following calendar year.

5. Only blue and red ribbon animals will be sold through the sale ring. White ribbon hogs will be floored or sent to slaughter. White ribbon steers and lambs will NOT be floored, but must be taken home or sent to slaughter.
6. Exhibitors wishing to withdraw an animal from the sale must do so by notifying the department head no later than two hours after the last market animal class in that species has been shown.
7. Exhibitors who show two market animals must notify the Department Head within two hours after the class has shown which animal will be sold through the auction and whether the remaining animal will be floored, sent to slaughter or taken home. If the exhibitor fails to inform the Department Head which animal is to be sold, the Stockshow committee will decide which of the two animals will be placed in the sale order.
8. Exhibitors who fail to bring their animal to the sale ring at the appointed time in the sale order will not be allowed to sell their animal until all other market animals have been sold.
9. The Stockshow Committee reserves the right of ninety days, or until payment has been received from the buyer of the animal, for settlement of animals sold.
10. A maximum of five percent sale commission will be charged on all market animals sold, including animals that are floored.
11. Each exhibitor is responsible for their stock until each animal is secured in the proper holding area following the sale.
12. Any money added to the sale price of an animal after it has been sold through the auction ring will be divided equally among all animals in that species.

UTAH STATE JUNIOR LIVESTOCK SHOW ASSOCIATION OVERVIEW OF RULES

2010 Show Season (revised 1/2010)

These rules and guidelines are aimed at standardizing junior livestock shows in Utah. Standardization will help provide the best possible educational experience for the young people of the state who have 4-H or FFA livestock projects. The Utah State Junior Livestock Shows Association is given this responsibility by the Utah Code Section 4-2-2 (Rule 65-8) through the Utah Department of Agriculture and the Utah Legislature. These rules are to be printed in the premium book for each state-assisted livestock show and any of your shows conflicting rules must be eliminated.

A total experience:

Exhibitors are encouraged to participate in the complete educational opportunity that junior livestock shows provide, such as the rate of gain, carcass, fitting and showing, record book, and livestock judging contests along with the judging of market and breeding animals. It is the purpose of these projects to develop life skills and animal husbandry and marketing skills among the participants.

Tagging:

Local Extension/4-H agents and FFA advisors will publicize tagging information regarding date, places, etc., and arrange local tagging for state-assisted shows. Animals must be tagged by ownership deadline dates. Possession and ownership requirements must be met for each show entered.

Benefits of the tagging system:

The tagging program has the potential to improve many aspects of the junior livestock's program, including the following:

Extension/4-H agents and FFA advisors will be able to see and verify member projects early to provide more educational support.

Livestock shows will receive entries early enough to better plan their awards and sales.

The last-minute purchase of a show animal by a member or his/her parents will be eliminated.

Extension/4-H agents and FFA advisors will be able to coordinate and cooperate in the tagging activities necessary in each county.

Code of Ethics:

The code of ethics applies to anyone exhibiting animals in livestock shows in the state of Utah. It includes Junior as well as Open Class exhibitors who compete in structured classes of competition. All classes of livestock offered at the livestock events are included. The following practices or procedures are unacceptable and are defined as deceptive, fraudulent, unethical, and inhumane in the care, fitting, preparation, and showing of all classes of livestock:

The use of any illegal drugs is prohibited.

Legal or illegal substances used to phenotypically alter the appearance of animals entered in livestock events are prohibited.

Use of illegal drugs is considered a premeditated act.

Any information obtained in the practice of illegal alteration of an animal will be turned over to the proper authorities for criminal prosecution.

This is a one-strike and you are out policy.

Exhibitors can forfeit any premium, awards, or auction monies and will be prohibited from further competition at shows in the state of Utah, as well as being subject to criminal prosecution if proven guilty of any infraction of the Association rules...

OFFICIAL RULES

A. GENERAL RULES

1. Age: -- 4-H ages and grades are based on the 4-H year, which begins October 1 and ends September 30. Categories are determined by a youth's age and grade on October 1, the beginning of the 4-H year. Exhibitors must be in the third grade, but not less than 8 years of age as of October 1. Exhibitors can show through the same season as their high school graduation, but not past their 19th birthday. Exception: Disabled persons as defined by public law 98-527. In these special cases, animals must still be the project animals of the exhibitor and be cared for daily by the disabled person.
2. Group Affiliation -- An exhibitor may enter a given show only as a 4-H or FFA member, but not both. Exhibitors must declare one or the other at time of entry.
3. Ownership of animals - The exhibitor will own, possess, feed, and care for his/her project animal(s) for not less than 100 consecutive days for market beef and 60 consecutive days for market swine and market lambs immediately prior to the show they intend to participate in. No interruption of ownership or possession can occur.

4. Fitting on show grounds -- The fitting of animals will take place in areas designated by the livestock show committee. Parents, guardians, siblings, club leaders, Extension/4-H agents and FFA advisors may assist, and are encouraged to assist the younger exhibitors. However, each exhibitor must be working with the project animal and be in attendance with that animal during the entire fitting process.
5. Code of Ethics (rules 5-a through 5-g) –
 - a. Treating an animal internally or externally, with any irritant, counterirritant, or other substance used to artificially change the conformation or appearance of an animal for show is considered unethical, inhumane, and is prohibited. This includes, but is not limited to, the use of graphite, powders, hemp, artificial hair, coloring, common products such as fly spray, ointment, or liniment used to the point that it is irritating, or similar type products. The use of dyes, spray paint, or other artificial coloring, which results in altering an animal's true and natural appearance and/or color, is prohibited. Adding false hair or hair-like material, fleece, or skin at any point, spot, or area of the animal's body is illegal and will result in immediate disqualification. Any liquid or substance not considered part of an accepted and normal diet for livestock is deemed illegal and inhumane. For example: the use of alcoholic or carbonated beverages as a drench or filler, etc. Drenching will not be allowed unless the show veterinarian or a show official is present and is needed for emergency purposes only.
 - b. The use of tranquilizers, sedatives, or depressants, which alter the physical or physiological state of the animal, is illegal. Exceptions to this rule would be licensed, certified veterinarians, treatment for a recognized disease or injury, or recommendation for tranquilizing breeding animals in heat that might compromise the safety of others. The drugs must be approved by the Food and Drug Administration for use in meat producing animals. All exhibitors will advise show management of any drug and/or medication administered to an animal that might be detected at the time of showing or at meat inspection. The name of the drug, its purpose, the person who administered the drug, time, and date of administration will be presented to show management prior to the showing and sale of the animals. Failure to report this information will result in severe penalty and/or disqualification. Any use of drugs or substances not approved by the Food and Drug Administration is strictly prohibited. All animals entered into livestock competition will be subject to testing for foreign substances that exceed acceptable levels established by the FDA, FSIS, USDA, or EPA. During the livestock event, in the case of an animal requiring treatment, all medication shall be administered by a licensed veterinarian and the livestock show officials shall be notified.
 - c. Surgery, injection or insertion of foreign material under the skin and/or into the flesh of animal to change the natural contour, conformation, or appearance of an animal's body is illegal. This includes vegetable oil, silicon, or any other substance used to alter an animal's shape. Acceptable practices of physical preparations, which are allowed, include: clipping of hair, trimming of hooves, dehorning, or removal of ancillary teats.
 - d. The use of inhumane fitting, showing, and handling practices or devices shall not be tolerated. For example: breaking of tails, striking of the animal to cause swelling or for bracing purposes, use of an electrical contrivance, muzzles, etc. is not acceptable.
 - e. Direct criticism or interference with the judge, show management, other exhibitors, breed representatives, or show officials before, during, or after the competitive event is prohibited.

- f. At the time an animal is sold at auction at the livestock show, the exhibitors shall be held directly responsible for animals that are rejected at the processing center for any reason. The seller may be liable to the buyer for an amount equal to three times the purchase price and may also be liable for attorney's fees and civil penalties. Show management may share acceptable intelligence and evidence information with FDA or USDA. If, for any reason, the FDA or USDA inspectors must remove any part of a meat animal carcass, the market price will be discounted.
 - g. Show management reserves the right to require animal health certificates. Health inspection and diagnostic tests may be made before or after animals are on the livestock show premises for exhibitor and animal safety, or to inaugurate disease control procedures which may become necessary in emergencies as determined by animal health officials. Any violation of the "Utah State Junior Livestock Code of Ethics" or specific rules as designated by individual fairs and livestock shows will result in forfeiture of premiums and awards, disqualification, and may result in probationary status and/or loss of eligibility for future participation in organized livestock competitions. Possible civil penalties may be imposed by the proper authorities based on evidence provided by the livestock show of exhibitors in violation of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic act/or the animal mistreatment, neglect, and abandonment laws that apply on the local, state, and national levels. Other cooperating shows will be notified of the action taken by show management, which may affect the eligibility of the individual, group, or sponsoring organization for participation at other shows. The decision of the livestock show management will be final.
- 6. Dress Code –
- 4-H - A long or short sleeve shirt, which fastens down the front with a collar, is mandatory. Shirts must be solid white in color and need not be Western style. Black or blue pants are to be worn. There is to be a 4-H emblem or patch on all 4-H member shirts.
 - FFA - Either a white shirt, tie and FFA jacket, or a white shirt with the FFA emblem and tie (t-shirts are not allowed.)
 - T-shirts, tank tops, tube tops, sleeveless shirts and vests are not allowed. Exhibitors who fail to abide by dress standards will forfeit prize money.
- 7. Sales Fee - A sales fee not to exceed 5% will be withheld from sales checks by all state-assisted shows. Any purchaser(s) of animals from a Junior Livestock Show Auction must pay the Show the full purchase price of sale regardless of buy-back.
 - 8. Change of Ownership -- Once an animal has gone through any stock show sale, regardless of buyback or no-sale, it is no longer eligible to enter another state assisted show.
 - 9. Show Eligibility - Animals are eligible for any show for which they meet ownership and show requirements.
 - 10. Lamb Docking Rule – Scientific research indicates that the incidence of rectal prolapsed is reduced when the tail is docked in a non-extreme manner. The recommended method is to dock at the distal end on the caudal fold (3rd caudal vertebra). Complete tail removal (extreme docking) is not an accepted sheep production practice and is discouraged for all Utah Junior Livestock sheep projects. Market lambs or breeding sheep showing any signs of contagious disease or current or recent signs of prolapse, or with an open sore on the dock (rosebud), will be sifted from Utah Junior Livestock Shows at the discretion of the state show vet at the time of weigh in and their determination is final.
 - 11. Name Change - If an animal has been shown in a market show in-state or out-of-sate, it must be shown in the same exhibitor name in all subsequent shows.

B. MARKET ANIMAL RULES:

1. Drug Withdrawal -- It is unethical and in most cases even unlawful to administer drugs to livestock within 20 to 30 days of slaughter. Animals too unmanageable to show should be withdrawn from their class rather than be tranquilized. The local show committee and the show veterinarian will monitor this situation. By federal regulations, random testing will occur at slaughter, and animals will be condemned which have been given any injection or oral dosages of tranquilizers, pain killers, antibiotics, diuretics, steroids, or other foreign substances during withdrawal periods before slaughter. All sales money will be withheld in such cases. Bloat medicine and other medications with no withdrawal requirements may be permissible. Exhibitors need to be aware of potential health hazards to consumers who eat animals that have received any above-mentioned substances. Please do not put someone's life in jeopardy.
2. Tagging -- The Extension/4-H agent, FFA advisor, or a member of their appointed committee shall tag each animal and process the proper forms. Should a tag be lost or pulled out of the animal's ear, the exhibitor will advise the committee supervisor immediately so that the tag can be replaced and the appropriate paperwork be processed.
3. Market Animal Weights -- (see form 1 for schedule of suggested show weights.) Ideal market weights as determined by the meat industry may vary somewhat from year to year, but the following show-day ranges are what suggested weights are based on:

Species	Weight Range	Daily Gain	S.E. Utah Jr. Livestock Minimum Weight Limit
Beef:	1,000 - 1,275 lbs	2.75 lbs/day	1000 lbs.
Sheep:	90 - 130lbs	.75 lbs./day	100 lbs.
Swine:	240 – 290 lbs	1.5 lbs./day	230 lbs.

4. Extra Animals -- Exhibitors may tag one extra animal per species for each show period.
5. Entry Forms & Deadlines - Entry forms are due at least thirty (30) days before each show. Exhibitors are responsible for mailing their own entry form. Entries postmarked by that date will be accepted. Exhibitor must declare which animals are to be shown, and submit an entry form and entry fees to the appropriate shows, including State Association ear tag numbers. The tag number and alternate tag number must be specified on the exhibitor entry form to be eligible. Entries may not exceed the limits for each show (see form 4) including one alternate animal per species entered. Forms must be signed by proper Extension/4-H agent or FFA advisor to verify exhibitor and animals are a legitimate entry for the show they are entering. Extension/4-H agents or FFA advisors should only sign forms for those youth enrolled in their programs. The Extension/4-H agent or FFA advisor and parents will verify eligibility for group and family feeding programs.

Entry forms for fitting and showmanship classes must also be submitted 30 days prior to show and need to indicate class to be entered (species) and age of exhibitor.

Entry fees will not be withheld from sales checks. Entry fees are to be sent along with all entry forms.

C. BREEDING ANIMAL RULES:

Exhibitors are encouraged to expand their scope of livestock project experience to include breeding livestock projects.

E. RULE ENFORCEMENT:

The local show has the responsibility to enforce the rules and regulations at their show. Any further action needs to be submitted in writing to the Utah State Junior Livestock Shows Association Board. Shows that do not comply and enforce the rules adopted may lose Association funding. If immediate action is needed, the board of the Utah State Junior Livestock Shows Association is empowered to make the ruling decision.
